Final Road Show of the Master programme
“Highway and Traffic Engineering”

الثلاثاء 29 نوفمبر 2016
قاعة السيمينار

Tuesday, November 29, 2016
Seminar Room
Faculty of Engineering
Ain Shams University
Cairo, Egypt

Objectives:

The final road show event has the aim of presenting the Master of Highway and Traffic Engineering to students and stakeholders at the premises of each Mediterranean university participating in the HiT4Med project, including Ain Shams University. The final road show event is organised at the end of the conclusion of the HiT4Med project, in order to disseminate the results of the project to a wide variety of stakeholders, to attract prospective students to the future masters programs and to collect experiences in implementing the Master courses.

The objectives of the final road show event are:

- Contribute to project dissemination and exploitation;
- Disseminate to the transportation community the project results;
- Disseminate to the education community the project results;
- Attract students for the future master programmes;
- Attract stakeholders who may enrol their staff members to the future master programmes;
- Attract stakeholders who may host the future internships;
- Attract stakeholders who may support financially the future HiT4Med master programmes.

Attendance:

It is important to have students that have participated and/or currently participating in the Master program.

It is important also to have other universities' representatives, enterprises and association of enterprises, as stakeholders in the Highway and Traffic Engineering sector for dissemination and exploitation reasons.

International HiT4Med project partners from renowned European universities and research institutes are coming in order to outline the project and the planned Masters courses.

The event is organised in several Egyptian universities and research institutes: and in Alexandria, at AASTMT premises (27th November 2016); in Zagazig, at ZU premises (28th November 2016) and in Cairo, at Ain Shams University premises (morning of 29th November 2016) and at CU premises (afternoon of 29th November 2016)
